

Annie Funke

ANNIE FUNKE is a 2007 graduate of the Weitzenhoffer School of Musical Theatre at OU, and is also the recipient of the 2016 OU Regents Alumni Award.

Annie made her Broadway debut as Tracy Turnblad in Hairspray, and continued on into the company of Wicked. Annie received the 2012 Lucille Lortel award for her performance in If There Is..., where she starred opposite Jake Gyllenhaal.

Off-Broadway credits include the Roundabout Theatre Company, MCC, as well as theaters around the county including the John. F. Kennedy Center, Studio Theatre, and Oklahoma's very own Lyric Theatre of Oklahoma where she got her start.

Movie credits include A Most Violent Year, and The Intern, and she can currently be seen as FBI agent Mae Jarvis opposite Gary Sinise in Criminal Minds Beyond Borders on CBS.

"I am incredibly honored and humbled to be a Young Creativity Ambassador. I got my start in Oklahoma and have seen first hand the amazing and dedicated artists that produce such incredible work in our state."